

my family and i are strongly against allowing use of cell phones aboard aircraft. we can not imagine anything being more disruptive of the flying experience or more invasive of personal "space" aboard an aircraft.